

Trade and Investment Attache of Sierra Leone to the UAE takes tour of DMCC

17 February 2019

Executive Chairman, Ahmed Bin Sulayem welcomed to Almas Tower this morning the Trade and Investment Attache of Sierra Leone to the UAE, HE Samuel Kaikai.

His Excellency – visiting DMCC for the first time – was accompanied by a team of senior officials for a tour of the world's leading free zone and a series of meetings.

The delegation received a briefing on the growing number of African firms joining the free zone, and the impact of the Made For Trade Live roadshow which raises awareness of DMCC in strategically important trade markets.

The delegation was taken to the trading floor of the Dubai Diamond Exchange (DDE) to witness a live auction of rough diamonds and discuss Dubai's leading role in facilitating international diamond trade.

The Executive Chairman emphasised DMCC's commitment to attract, facilitate and promote global trade and willingness to support ambitious firms from Sierra Leone seeking expansion.

About DMCC

Headquartered in Dubai, DMCC is the world's most interconnected Free Zone, and the leading trade and enterprise hub for commodities. Whether developing vibrant neighbourhoods with world-class property like Jumeirah Lakes Towers and the much-anticipated Uptown Dubai, or delivering high performance business services, DMCC provides everything its dynamic community needs to live, work and thrive. Made for Trade, DMCC is proud to sustain and grow Dubai's position as the place to be for global trade today and long into the future.
